

44-383
 X-100-10075-3
 E. J. McEARTHNEY

Front Page
 Edit Page
 Other Page

Date:

NAMES IN THE NEWS

JFK Appointee Is Challenged

Sen. McCarthy (D-Minn.) said today he is not sure John A. McCone has the qualifications to head the Central Intelligence Agency.

President Kennedy recently named the Los Angeles man, who served in various capacities in both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations, to succeed Allen W. Dulles as director of the CIA.

"There is nothing particular to recommend Mr. McCone as director of the CIA," McCarthy said in Washington. "They lay down five or six qualifications for director of the CIA and I do not know if he has those qualifications."

Labor Secretary Goldberg denounced Russia Sunday night for a "public policy" of persecution and discrimination against Jews.

Goldberg, a member of the Jewish faith, said in New York the "black years" launched by Josef Stalin in 1948, which signaled a massive assault on Jewish cultural life, "unhappily are not over, as every impartial investigation has shown."

Archbishop John J. Mitty, 77, head of the Roman Catholic Church in San Francisco for 26 years, died Sunday.

a heart attack in San Francisco.

He had been hospitalized several times by heart seizures.

Newton Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, predicts the teen-ager would respond to "the best television has to offer" if given a choice between a western or a comedy and a high-level cultural program.

Minow suggested on a television program in New York Sunday simultaneous presentations of educational and entertainment TV programs to test viewer preferences.

Singer Lu Ann Simms was married in New York Sunday to Casper Stolt, 32, a Rochester, N.Y., liquor salesman.

Commerce Secretary of Hodges has advised young Americans to go into debt as far as they can afford it to invest for their future.

"Don't go into debt beyond your weekly income or monthly income," he said Sunday in Washington. "But go into debt to borrow to invest capital into something."